communities

Welcome to our award-winning publication! We were very excited and proud to learn the 2014 Annapolis County Community Events Guide was awarded the 2014 Economic Developers Association of Canada (EDAC) National Marketing Award! Well done! I'm sure as you read through this publication you'll understand why it was afforded with such an honour.

You will be astonished by all there is to see and do in Annapolis County. We have a huge variety of events, festivals and community gatherings going on this year. In fact, over 150 events are listed in this guide for you to explore and enjoy!

You will marvel at our dedicated volunteers; admire our towns, villages and coastal communities; and enjoy our parks, trails and open spaces. Our rich history and cultural diversity provides a wealth of unique opportunities and experiences. This guide is the perfect tool to start discovering all our events, festivals and activities.

Catch a glimpse of our beautiful region through the pages of this guide, then come join us to experience the full effect of Annapolis County and all it has to offer.

Port-Royal National Historic Site, 53 Historic Lane, Port Royal
902 532 2898 | SouthwestNova.NHS@pc.gc.ca | parkscanada.gc.ca/portroyal

The Port-Royal Habitation is a reconstruction of a small French compound begun in 1605. It was home to one of the earliest European settlements on this continent. Mi'kmaq people lived along these shores for centuries and it was here that the French and the Mi'kmaq formed an enduring alliance. The Habitation survived until 1613 when it was destroyed in an attack by Captain Samuel Argall of Virginia. Meet animators and learn about the stories of the Mi'kmaq by visiting the recently installed wigwam. An admission fee is charged.

3870 Granville Rd, Port Royal | 6.5km from Annapolis Royal
902 532 2321 | pc.gc.ca

Working cooperatively with family and neighbours, these Acadian settlers built a network of dykes to hold back the seven metre tides, creating land for planting, pasturing and cutting salt hay. Melanson Settlement contains the archaeological remains of a pre-Deportation Acadian community (c.1664-1755). These archaeological resources reflect the family communities settled by Acadians and Acadians' unique dyke-land agriculture practiced along the Annapolis River (formerly Dauphin River).

61 School St, Middleton | 902 825 6062

info@memorylanerailwaymuseum.com | memorylanerailwaymuseum.com

Enjoy a free visit, where you can see many unique railroad artifacts: model railways, railroad implements, antique station paraphernalia, historical books, manuscripts and pictures. The site has many outdoor features, such as a trolley railway, gardens and a picnic area. "All Aboard" for a fun learning experience the whole family can enjoy. Donations welcome; museum is wheelchair accessible.

Mount Hanley School House Museum

Last weekend of June-First weekend in Sept | 1-4pm daily

2130 Mount Hanley Rd, Mount Hanley

902 825 6014 | mounthanleyschoolhousemuseum.ca

Mount Hanley School House Museum was a one-room school house that operated from 1850 to 1963. The museum is full of interesting artifacts, not only school related, but of general interest as well.

North Hills Museum

5065 Granville Rd, Granville Ferry | 902 532 2168

northhillsmuseum@gmail.com | annapolisheritagesociety.com

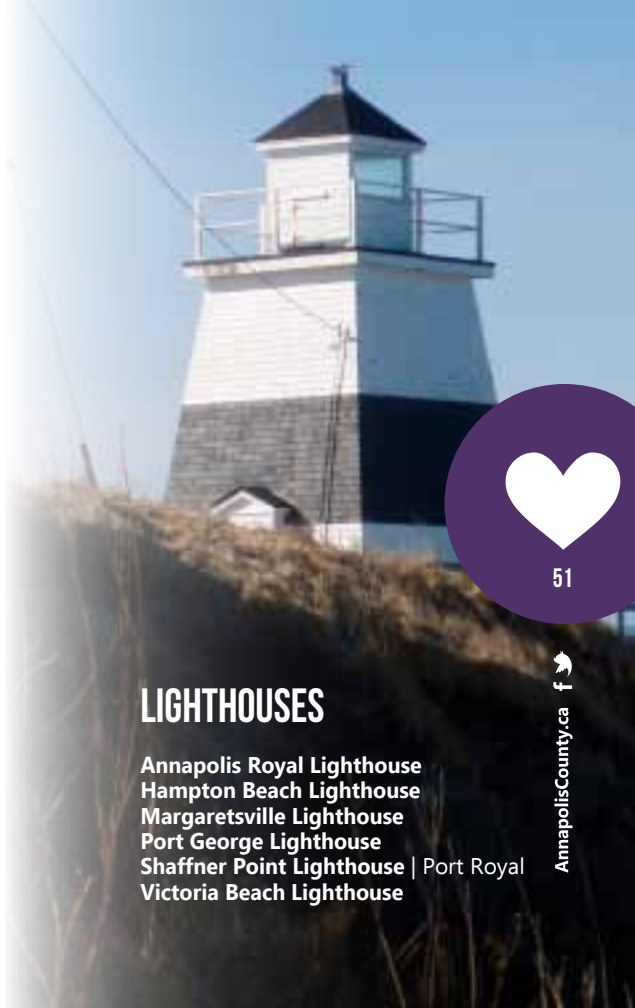

Located in a 1764 farmhouse on one of the most historic roads in Canada. North Hills Museum features Georgian decor assembled by the late antiques collector Robert Patterson. His collection of 18th century paintings, ceramics, glassware and furniture is one of the finest in Canada.

O'Dell House Museum

Open year round | 136 St. George St, Annapolis Royal

902 532 7754 | annapolisheritagesociety.com

Annapolis Royal's community museum. Built by a former Nova Scotia Pony Express rider, the museum was originally operated as a stagecoach inn and tavern. The museum's collection is divided between a reproduction of a Victorian inn and tavern on the first floor and contemporary museum exhibits on the second. The O'Dell House Museum is also the headquarters of the Annapolis Heritage Society.

Victoria Beach Lighthouse

Old Holy Trinity Church

49 Main St, Hwy 1, Middleton

Built in 1789-1790, its white painted clapboard construction with large rectangular windows, some with original glass, and the square tower with its slim, rounded spire, give the church an air of confident dignity. The first church service was held on August 14th, 1791. It is the only unchanged, surviving Loyalist church in North America.

Old St. Edward's Loyalist Church Museum

34 Old Post Rd, Clementsport | Off Hwy 1 - signs posted in Clementsport
Linda Isles, 902 638 8081 | wayne.linda@eastlink.ca

A Loyalist church in original condition with a fine collection of Loyalist artifacts and some historical records. Old cemetery on a high hill overlooks the Annapolis Basin; panoramic view from tower. Anniversary service held the third Sunday in August at 3pm.

Pony Express National Historic Site

Granville Rd, Victoria Beach

Commemorative plaque recognizing Nova Scotia's role in the Pony Express and Associated Press.

Port-Royal National Historic Site of Canada (The Habitation)

53 Historic Lane, Granville Rd, Port Royal | 7.5km from Annapolis Royal
902 532 2898 | SouthwestNova.NHS@pc.gc.ca | parkscanada.gc.ca/portroyal

The Port-Royal Habitation is a reconstruction of a small French compound begun in 1605. It was home to one of the earliest European settlements on this continent. Mi'kmaq people lived along these shores for centuries and it was here that the French and the Mi'kmaq formed an enduring alliance. The Habitation survived until 1613 when it was destroyed in an attack by Captain Samuel Argall of Virginia. Meet animators and learn about the stories of the Mi'kmaq by visiting the recently installed wigwam.

Sinclair Inn Museum

230 St. George St, Annapolis Royal | 902 532 7754 | annapolisheritagesociety.com

Designated a National Historic Site in 1995, the Sinclair Inn Museum is one of the oldest surviving wood-framed structures in Canada. With portions of the building dating to 1710 or earlier, this is the oldest Acadian-built house still standing. If you are lucky, you might even be able to meet the ghosts of the Sinclair Inn.

The Mohawks at Annapolis Royal

Lower St. George St, Annapolis Royal

A plaque now stands at lower St. George Street representing the area where, in 1712, the headquarters of a Mohawk company used to be located. The company was brought from New York by Major Livingston as British allies to control the regional Mi'kmaq-French alliance.

Tidal Power Exhibit

June-Sept | 236 Prince Albert Rd, Annapolis Royal | 902 532 0502 | nspower.ca

The Annapolis Tidal Generating Station Interpretive Centre is open seasonally. Visitors learn about how this innovative generating station works. Visitor Information Centre on site.

Tupperville School Museum

Open mid-June to first week in Sept, Wed-Sun, 10am-5pm.

Closed Mon and Tues, except for Canada Day and Annapolis Royal Natal Day
2663 Hwy 201, Tupperville | 902 665 2427 | alan_barkhouse@hotmail.com

A one-room country school house (pre 1875) with old pine desks, organ, teacher's desk and chair, school book collection, including Royal Readers and pre-1950 photographs and scrapbooks. Small collection of Mi'kmaq crafts by Louis Jeremy. Home-made ice cream for sale. Picnic area with three picnic tables, no potable (drinking) water, fully accessible washroom.
